HIGH-DENOMS IN HIGH DEMAND:

- $1,000 1934-A Fr. 2212-Em One Thousand-Richmond. Strong grade, even margins, and excellent eye-appeal! PCGS Ch Unc 63. $8995
- $1,000 1934-A Fr. 2212-G One Thousand-Chicago. Looks Unc-if you were only going to own one, this should be it. PCGS Choice XF 45. $5250
- $1,000 1934-A Fr. 2212-G One Thousand-Chicago. Shows little to no evidence of handling through its encapsulation. A spectacular selection for a collector seeking a note that looks seemingly uncirculated, at a fraction of the price of those that are. PCGS EF 40. $4850
- $1,000 1934-A FRN Fr. 2212-G One Thousand-Chicago. It has bold inks and escaped circulation problem-free, unlike many. Owning a thousand in any grade, is a trophy...this just happens to be great value, too! PCGS Ch VF 35. $4495
- $1,000 1928 FRN Fr. 2210-B One Thousand-New York=1928 SERIES= A survivor of the Great Depression, this note shows evidence of spending time in commerce as the graders mention tape residue and a few pinholes. The experts didn't deem these grade-consistent flaws worthy of the 'net' designation; therefore, this trophy comes with a clean holder. There's simply no comparing the scarce 1928 series to the later series which have considerably more known. PMG Very Fine 20. $3295

- $500 1934-A FRN Fr. 2202-B Five Hundred-New York. Ideal for the collector that wants a high-grade without having to cross the $5k threshold that many in this grade are rising above. There's a comment of minor ink that the graders didn't feel was bad enough to earn a details designation as it's small, faint, and confined to the top margin. The tiny flaw is easy to overlook, and there's no way you could regret owning an Unc five hundred at this price. PCGS Ch Unc 63. $3995
- $500 1934-A FRN Fr. 2202-G Five Hundred-Chicago. Exceptional eye-appeal + problem-free; it's a collector's dream. PCGS Ch AU 58. $3750
- $500 1934-A FRN, Fr. 2202-G Five Hundred-Chicago. No hard folds/ creases so any gentle handling must have only been visible prior to encapsulation. Faint teller stamp to the left of the central portrait called 'minor ink' that's easy to overlook and not objectionable. PMG AU 53. $3495
- $500 1934 FRN Fr.2201-H Five Hundred-St. Louis. Easily earned Exceptional Paper Quality. From a lesser-seen district preserved in ideal collector condition, we're delighted to pass this new purchase onto a collector that's eagerly awaiting the opportunity to catapul his/her collection to the next level. PMG Ch EF 45EPQ. $2995
- $500 1934-A FRN Fr. 2202-G Five Hundred-Chicago. Wonderful Windy City high denom comes with a few flaws that allow this note to be considerably more affordable than competitors in the same grade. Prior to encapsulation, the graders noticed a minor edge tear and minor surface damage in the margin. Neither of these are objectionable, yet both contribute to the significant discount. PCGS Abt Unc 50. $2495
- $500 1934-A FRN, Fr. 2202-G Five Hundred-Chicago. The perfect note for a collector that doesn't want to sacrifice beauty for budget. This note offers both aesthetics and affordability as it boasts in its holder. PMG Ch VF 35. $2,250

SOLID SMALL SIZE SELECTIONS:

- $1 2006 FRN Fr.1933-E SOLID 8 E888888888. A trophy serial with eight consecutive 8s appearing as the entire serial number on this note that wouldn't be the least bit uncomfortable in a Superb Gem holder. Collectors spend decades chasing notes like this. PCGS Gem Unc 66PPQ. $5250
- $1 2003 FRN Fr. 1929-L SOLID 8 L888888888. A superb serial that offers eight 8s. The corners are sharp, margins are even, inks are bold, paper is original, and the embossing is popping through the encapsulation. If you were looking for more than just a trophy serial, this note is the total package. PCGS Gem Unc 65PPQ. $4995
- $1 1999 FRN, Fr. 1924-B SOLID 8 B888888888. High grade + highly desirable. Enjoy it a bit cheaper than the Gems, but it has the same great look. PMG Ch Unc 64EPQ. $4495
- $1 1935-A Silver Cert, Fr. 2300 Hawaii. Exceptionally well-centered + fully-original WWII Emergency Issue. PCGS-B Gem Unc 66PPQ. $450
- $10 1934-A Hawaii, Fr. 2303, Hawaii. Despite the premise for its very existence to be surrounded by destruction, this note shows no indications that it wasn't printed this morning...well, besides the authenticity guarantee from PMG. The note has a brown seal, brown serials, black surcharge, white paper, even and generous margins, and due to its originality has earned the coveted Exceptional Paper Quality designation. PMG Gem Unc 65EPQ. $1895
- $10 1934-A Fr. 2309, North Africa. WWII Emergency with blue serials, yellow seal, bright paper, and even margins. PCGS Ch Unc 63. $375
- $10 1934-A Fr. 2309*, North Africa STAR. Emergency issue notes are popular and widely sought-after; however, acquiring a North Africa STAR note catapults one's collection to the next level. PCGS Abt Unc 55PPQ. $795
- $10 1934-A Fr. 2309*, North Africa STAR. Great look; fully original. PCGS VF 25PPQ. $415
- $10 1928 Fr. 2400, Gold Cert. Even margins + sharp corners are found with a gorgeous gold seal and serials. Note presents like Unc, but offered much cheaper! PCGS Ch AU 58. $695
- $10 1928 Fr. 2400*, Gold Cert STAR. Handled but attractive ten dollar note that picked up a tiny split in the bottom margin along the centerfold that the graders didn't feel was worthy of mention as it is consistent with the findings for many notes in this grade. With a gorgeous gold star preceding the serials, this note is destined to please! PCGS VF 25. $575

- $1 1928 Legal Tender, Fr. 1500* Red Seal Ace STAR. An exceptional + scarce red seal ace replacement with a census report of roughly four dozen stars while there are over 4,000 regular issues! In an effort to prevent counterfeiting, the currency stock/ paper is comprised of cotton and other materials which is why we sometimes find a tiny wood chip inclusion in US Currency. This note has an as-made inclusion which could've gone without mention on this highly-desirable, yet rarely available $1 1928 Legal Tender Star. PMG VF 30. $5995
- $1 1928 Legal Tender, Fr. 1500, Red Seal Ace. Four digit serial with fire engine red overprint on this fully-original red seal ace. PCGS Vy Ch New 64PPQ. $595

- We've seen a few examples over the past few years, but this is the first opportunity for Executive Currency to share this exciting mismatched suffix error with our collectors. We eagerly snapped the three pieces offered to us. We like the mismatched suffix error: not only is the error type rare (garnering a R-6 rating), but the error is so evident as it jumps out at the end of serial number, unlike mismatched digits which are often "buried" in the serial. We have exactly three of these, each in a different grade and priced accordingly.
- $20 2017-A FRN, Mismatched Suffix Error. PMG Superb Gem Unc 67EPQ. $1295
 - $20 2017-A FRN, Mismatched Suffix Error. PMG Gem Unc 66EPQ. $995
 - $20 2017-A FRN, Mismatched Suffix Error. PMG Gem Unc 65EPQ. $895
 - $10 1981 FRN, Star Mismatch Prefix Error. I-7/L-. Only one we've ever seen. Mismatched prefix letters as the lower left begins with I and the upper right begins with L. PMG AU 53EPQ. $2995

NEW + NOTEWORTHY:

- $5 1870 National Gold Bank Note San Francisco, CA Ch# 1741. Incredibly scarce with a total of 26 combined pieces known in the census for both $5 and $10 denominations. There are a couple of very minor repairs noted on the holder, but the all important gold coin vignette is clear and sharp and the colors are excellent for the grade. The highest graded by any service is a 50 which has approached $50k at prior public sales. This note looks better than its assigned grade and as these rarely come this nice, we're ecstatic to have recently acquired it. PCGS Very Fine 25, det. $14,950
- $50 1922 GC, Fr. 1200. Fifty Dollar Gold Cert. Even handling, pleasing overprint, and orange back. Pleasing overprint and orange back. It managed to escape its century in commerce entirely-problem free while still maintaining the aesthetics and affordability collectors desire. PMG VF 20. $1195
- $5 1890 Treasury Note Fr. 361 Gen.Thomas. Limited to the Choice grade by its top margin, this Thomas has all the other attributes of a Gem-bright, white paper, and a deep red overprint with the ornate back design. Public sales has notes in this grade repeatedly approaching and crossing the $9k mark while those with the EPQ designation are knocking on the door of $11k. This should be priced quite favorably for a dealer looking for a resale opportunity or a collector seeking a bargain on a problem-free and tough note that's not often available. PMG Ch Unc 64. $7495
- $1 1899 SC, Fr. 233 Black Eagle Serial: Y3000Y. Large size fancy serials are tough to come by and they certainly don't often present in this grade, with this cool of a SN! Exciting serial 3000 on a note that faces up as Superb. PMG Gem Unc 65EPQ. $2250
