1. $100 1966 LT, Fr. 1550S, FINEST KNOWN + ULTRA RARE SPECIMEN. Bold red vertical stamps on both sides of Franklin and at each end of the back denote this C-note as a Specimen as does the serial number H12345678G. While FRN Specimens are seen with some regularity, this note is a rare sight indeed as we have not owned another example of a $100 Legal Tender Specimen in our near 50 years in the industry. Only a few examples known with its closest competitor, a flat 63, nowhere near this trophy. We recognize this note may be as unique as its buyer; therefore, if an interest-free layaway would assist you in adding this five-figure acquisition to your collection, please contact us. High-resolution images and pricing are available upon request. PMG Gem Unc 66EPQ 586.979.3400

High Denominations

- $500 1934 FRN, Fr. 2202-C Five Hundred-Philadelphia. Bright paper, bold inks, sharp corners, and exceptional eye-appeal make this an intelligent selection for a collector seeking an uncirculated example without breaking the bank. PCGS-B Unc 62.$4495
- $500 1934 FRN, Fr. 2202-D Five Hundred-Cleveland. This note offers exceptional eye-appeal and comes without any problems or negative comments. PMG Ch VF 35.$2250
- Cheap $500s available with photos at ExecutiveCurrency.com
- $1,000 1934-A FRN, Fr. 2212-C One Thousand-Philadelphia. This comment-free one thousand dollar note is seemingly under-graded and might be a candidate for an upgrade with today's services and standards. If it upgrades, the buyer will be rewarded quite handsomely with a profit-- making it an intelligent selection for dealer or a collector that's more focused on the overall aesthetics of this fabulous Philadelphia thousand than the numeric grade. PCGS Abt New 50.$5250

10. $1,000 1840 Post Note—Bank of the United States. Philadelphia, PA. This post note, issued while the bank was operating under a PA state charter, depicts the bank's headquarters in Philadelphia as well as six notable American figures. There are 4 interest and principal payment annotations on back. Great look; rarely available. PCGS-B Ch AU 58.$1195

These were printed uni-face (front only) and intended to serve as interbank instruments to transfer funds...all available specimens resulted from a fire in a storage facility at a post office in Washington, DC in 1935 where firemen—believing that they were simply unimportant paper—threw these out on to the street to contain the fire, where passersby picked them up. As a result of the heat and water, many come with some areas of discoloration. Please note these are not redeemable.

- $10,000 1900 Gold Cert, Fr. 1225h Ten Thousand. Fortunately, despite the comment of stains that the grader must have felt obligated to add, this one remains incredibly bright with exceptional eye-appeal! A great opportunity to secure a "high denom" at a fraction of the price. PCGS-B Ch VF 35.$4795
- $10,000 1900 Gold Cert, Fr. 1225b Ten Thousand. Rare variety with only 14 known. Most of these are canceled, such as this note with hole punch cancellation. There are only 14 known and this note last brought over $4k in 2015. PCGS Fine 15.$3495

- $1 1899 SC, Fr. 236* Black Eagle STAR. An early replacement note from the final variety of arguably the most popular large size type. PCGS-B Ch Fine 15.$350

- $20 1880 Silver Cert, Fr. 308, Black Back-Triple Sigs! All triple signature notes are classic rarities for large size collectors. This offering is no exception, as it is one of just a dozen pieces enumerated in the census for Fr. 308. It has a comment of restoration which was executed with skill, and thus enhances the appearance of this seemingly mid-grade example. This piece faces up as a VF due to the brightness and strength of its inks. In Jan. 2023 a PMG VF 20 with comment of minor repairs brought $20,400. This is the most recent record of sales for grades 15 and 20. This is a bargain for a collector that's tired of waiting for an attractive countersigned Black Back. PMG Ch Fine 15, net.$12,250
- $1 1891 Silver Cert, Fr. 223, Martha. Bright paper, bold inks, even margins. As noted by the graders there are a few well-concealed pinholes that are only barely visible when the note is backlit and entirely disappear when it's not. A discerning collector shouldn't hesitate on this new addition. PCGS-B EF 40.$1150
