

High Denomination + Highly Desirable Notes

Photos of items are available at ExecutiveCurrency.com

1. $1,000 1934-A FRN, Fr.2212-G One Thousand-Chicago. There's no way a nicer looking 45 exists. This note looks Unc. PMG Ch EF 45. $5250

2. $500 1934 FRN Fr.2201-G Five Hundred-Chicago. Light Green Seal. A seemingly uncirculated McKinley with crisp white paper that contrasts beautifully with the light green seal and serials. Ch AU-CU. $3995

3. $500 1934-A FRN Fr.2202-G Five Hundred-Chicago. No hard folds or creases so any handling must have only been gently visible prior to encapsulation. Faint teller stamp to the left of the central portrait called 'minor ink' that's easy to overlook and not objectionable. PMG AU 53. $3495

4. $500 1934 FRN, Fr.2201-G Five Hundred-Chicago Light Green Seal. A stunning and original light green seal that's in a lesser-known holder, but with all the eye-appeal of bright paper, bold inks, even margins, and sharp corners! CGC AU 55PQ. $3850

5. $500 1934-A FRN Fr.2202-G Five Hundred-Chicago. The perfect note for a collector that doesn't want to sacrifice beauty for budget. This note offers both aesthetics and affordability as it boasts in its holder of PMG Ch VF 35. $2250

6. $500 1934 FRN, Fr.2101-D Five Hundred-Cleveland. An attractive and problem-free example of a high-denomination that's destined to turn heads. This note offers exceptional eye-appeal and comes without any problems or negative comments...as many do. PMG Ch VF 35. $2250

7. $500 1934-A FRN, Fr.2202-B Five Hundred-New York. A textbook VF with two well-concealed sets of staple holes that only become barely noticeable once backlit. Ch VF. $1995

8. $1 1869 LT, Fr. 18, Rainbow. Exceptional color with deep blue anti-counterfeiting swath. They don't usually come this nice. PMG EF40. $2895

9. $1 1869 LT, Fr. 18, Rainbow. Problem-free, attractive and colorful! PCGS-B VF 20. $1350

10. $2 1869 LT, Fr. 42 Rainbow This mid-grade Rainbow deuce with outstanding color that faces up better than most XFs. PMG VF 30 EPQ. ... $4250

11. $2 1869 LT, Fr.42 Rainbow. The handling is well-concealed and the color that remains on this note is nothing shy of a collector's dream. PCGS-B VF 30. $3495

12. $5 1869 LT, Fr.64 Rainbow. This note displays all the color a discerning collector would desire and faces up like a strong AU-CU. Little spot of adhesive that's barely noticeable and hidden in the design of the word FIVE to the left of the Pioneer Family. Ch EF-AU. $3250

13. $5 1869 LT, Fr.64 Rainbow. Fully-original with eye-popping embossing that competes with the colors on this stunning note. PCGS VF 30PPQ. $2795

14. $10 1869 LT, Fr.96 Rainbow. A handsome ten that's retained lovely color. A few tiny pinholes are barely noticeable even when the note is backlit and remains quite attractive from both sides. PCGS-B VF 20. $1745

15. $50 1869 LT, Fr. 151 Rainbow. The portrait of Henry Clay is located at the right with a considerable amount of color still present. The pigment is rich for the grade making any comment of 'restorations' seemingly impossible to locate. PMG Fine 12, net. $19,995

16. $5 1896 SC, Fr. 269, Educational. Electricity as the Dominant Force in the World. Just purchased this stunning $5 Ed with bold inks and a great look. Small sealed edge split confined to the margin. PCGS-B VF 30, det. $5995

17. $5 1896 SC, Fr. 268, Educational. This note faces up ten points higher than its assigned grade despite trivial comment of 'minor repairs.' PMG VF 20. $3450

18. $2 1896 SC, Fr. 247, Educational. Science Presenting Steam + Electricity to Commerce + Manufacture. A seemingly under-graded and stunning example of an Educational deuce that offers the iconic allegory. The paper is bright, the inks are bold, and the embossing is deep! PCGS VF 30. $3250

19. $2 1896 SC, Fr.248, Educational. An affordable + attractive opportunity to acquire a $2 Ed. Very Fine. $1995

20. $2 1896 SC, Fr.247, Educational. A couple sealed tears along the edges that are described as edge repairs on the back of the holder. Affordable opportunity to acquire an iconic note that quickly gets out of reach. PCGS-B Ch Fine 15, det. $1050

21. $1 1896 SC, Fr.224, Educational. History Instructing Youth. Generous margins for a series that comes tight. PCGS-B Ch Unc 63PPQ. $3495

22. $1 1896 SC, Fr. 224, Educational. Looks nearly identical to above. PCGS Ch AU 58. $2995

23. $1 1896 SC, Fr.224 Educational. A wonderful example of what's often described as 'the most beautiful series of US paper money.' VF. $545

24. $5 1923 SC, Fr. 282 Porthole. Lincoln sits serenely inside the central circle said to resemble a ship's porthole. Gentle handling offers affordability but the bold blue overprint and black inks offer a high-quality problem-free banknote. VF. $1495

25. $5 1886 Silver Cert, Fr. 261 Silver Dollar Back. Small red seal is found on the face of this note that's easiest recognized and often referred to by its back design featuring five Morgan Silver Dollars. If the perfect banknote exists to guide coin collectors into the paper realm, this is it. Very Fine. $2995

26. $5 1886 Silver Cert, Fr. 262 Silver Dollar Back. Large red spiked seal. This note traded hands a few times, but managed to escape circulation entirely free of any negative comments. These quickly become out of reach in higher grades; therefore, we're ecstatic to present this offering. PCGS-B VF 20. $2995

27. $5 1886 SC, Fr.261 Silver Dollar Back. This note is best and often appreciated from the back and all five Morgan Silver Dollars are well-inked and attractive. Likely previously displayed to show the back, there's a small area of paper pulls at the top center on the face that in no way detracts from the back's beauty. PMG Fine 12. $1295
